

Kim Arre

3202 Rockview Pl., San Luis Obispo, CA. 93401

661-444-7192

karre@calpoly.edu

www.kimarre.com

Objective

To gain real-world experience by finding an tech industry internship somewhere on the west coast, preferably in California.

Education

B.S. Degree in Computer Engineering

California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, CA.

Involved in Mustang Marching Band and Society of Women Engineers.

Coursework:

- | | | |
|--------------------------|--------------------|--------------------|
| • Physics | • Tech Writing | • Public Speaking |
| • Calculus | • Linear Algebra | • Circuit Analysis |
| • Differential Equations | • CSC Fundamentals | • Digital Design |

Expected Graduation:

June 2015

Projects and Activities

iFixit Repair Guide Project – Nintendo Wii U

- Collaborated with four other students to create an online repair guide for the Nintendo Wii U located on www.ifixit.com.
- Took and edited pictures as well as wrote many of the instructions.

*January - March
2013*

Built AC Power Supply

- Soldered components such as resistors, diodes, and transistors to IC board to create a working, usable power supply.

Fall 2012

Marching Band Visual Tech, Liberty High School.

- Instructed high school marching band of approx. 140 members.
- Led and instructed band camp basic and advanced techniques.
- Cleaned and defined marching formations.

*Summers 2011
and 2012*

Forum and Server Administrator, Commonwealth Gaming Community.

- Managed server administrators by setting up newly admitted admins and monitored current admins for quality of work.
- Published informational tutorials and public announcements via forum posts.

2009-2012

Skills

Programming Languages

- Experience with C, Java, JavaScript, HTML, and CSS.

Photoshop Proficiency

- Ability to operate most tools in Photoshop.
- Effective at rendering objects and image color adjustment.

Work Experience

Daycare Assistant, Stockdale Christian School.

- Prepared craft materials for multiple classes from first grade through sixth grade.
- Supervised large numbers of children on playground and provided first-aid when necessary.

Summer 2012

Receptionist, Great Clips.

- Operated register and checked clients into computer.
- Kept the store clean by sweeping hair, washing towels and cleaning working stations.

Summer 2011